

As a participant on the Surrey House Courses, I agree to the following conditions regarding the upcoming course:

1. A deposit is requested prior to starting the course and is usually non-refundable - unless there are exceptional circumstances.
2. We regret the dates and places are not always transferable and reserve the right to make minor alterations to the course when relevant.
3. You agree not to reproduce course materials but understand and grant Surrey House Courses the right and permission to use portfolio examples (as sample of student work for example – no names or details are shared).
4. You agree not to take photographs of the outside of the course venue and any taken inside are for personal use only and not to be shared on social media or elsewhere.
5. There is a no smoking policy, and although dietary requirements are taken into account, it is up to the student to take responsibility for what is eaten.

Regarding public liability:

Because the course is in a private house rather than a public building, insurance cover is limited therefore:

6. I fully comprehend and accept all of the risks associated with my participation on the course, including, without limitation, exposure to injuries.
7. My participation in the course is at my own risk and choosing. To the maximum extent permitted by law I hereby forever and unconditionally release the Surrey House Course business, and any affiliated entities or people, from any and all claims, actions, damages, liabilities, losses, costs and expenses in any way arising out of, or resulting from, my participation in the course, including, without limitation, any and all claims, actions, and liabilities for death, injury, loss or damage to myself, to anyone else, or to any property including my car when parking.
8. I authorise the course leader and/or its representatives to provide medical assistance of their choosing, including transportation and emergency medical assistance.
9. This waiver is to be governed by English law and subject to the jurisdiction of the English courts.
10. This waiver replaces all parties' previous discussions, understandings, and agreements relating to the subject matter.

Payment of the deposit confirms your acceptance of the above terms and conditions.
